

Images © No reproduction without prior permission

KENT WEDDING AWARDS NEWS

Penshurst Place & Gardens are delighted to have won the prestigious Kent Wedding Best Venue Award at the official gala awards ceremony last Thursday at the Ashford International Hotel.

Nikki Evans, Head of Banqueting & Events at Penshurst Place & Gardens, who manages a team of seven dedicated event and wedding co-ordinators, says, “We are thrilled to win this award. It is all down to our wonderful team and their commitment to make Penshurst Place the best venue in Kent to hold your wedding.”

Penshurst Place’s appointed caterer Leith’s are known for their impeccable standards of cuisine and their Head Chef, Emily Bell, says about the award, “I have great passion for cooking and creating the dishes for Penshurst Place weddings. We are delighted to be part of winning this award.”

On the awards night the winners announcement read:

“Penshurst Place and Gardens is set in an area of unspoilt natural beauty and is famed for its stunning Tudor Gardens and awe –inspiring medieval banqueting hall.

Along with its obvious fantastic backdrop for the most romantic of weddings, they pride themselves on their exacting standards of personalised service, and aim to make every wedding day perfect.

Every couple is allocated their own designated member of the banqueting team, who will be on duty throughout the whole wedding day, to ensure its ultimate smooth running.

With Leith’s as their appointed caterer to provide a fine dining experience, every special dietary requirement can be catered for.

Judges thought it was an enchanting venue with a flexible wedding package and high attention to detail at every level. Literature and presentation exquisitely put together.”

Penshurst Place has been a licensed venue for ceremonies since 1995. It has banqueting facilities of varying sizes including the unique, medieval Baron’s Hall which can be used for ceremonies and receptions.

For images of the award night see www.smilephotography.net or for information about the Award, the organisers, Brilliant Marketing Solutions – more information at www.kentweddingawards.co.uk

For information about this award-winning wedding venue go to www.weddingsatpenshurstplace.com